commercialised to a greater extent. In such a situation, we are facing serious problems. Sir, at the time of 93rd amendment, which was passed by this august House, the Government-ensured that new provisions would not be misused for privatisation or commercialisation. Similarly, with regard to the differential fee structure, which is prevalent in this country, I would like to say that the private colleges are charging even Rs. 3,30,000 as fee.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question please.

SHRI A. VIJYARAGHAVAN: Sir, in such a situation, the Government has to come out with a comprehensive legislation. There are so many court verdicts that are contrary, and, the more talented and meritorious students are being kept out of the educational system. Will the Government come out with a comprehensive legislation in order to ensure that the poor students, meritorious students in this country get education? That is my question.

SHRIMATI D. PURANDESWARI: Sir, UGC is ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI A. VIJYARAGHAVAN: Not the UGC...(Interruptions)...The Government has to*...(Interruptions)...*

MR. CHAIRMAN: Let the question be answered. ...(Interruptions)...

SHRIMATI D. PURANDESWARI: Sir, the UGC is the competent body that can actually give regulations pertaining to the education. ...(Interruptions)...

SHRI A. VIJYARAGHAVAN: Sir, it is not the UGC..(Interruptions)... In this august House, there was an assurance. ...(Interruptions)...
